

With multiple SDS/2 3D modeling and detailing stations we have completed projects from 2 tons to 1800 tons. With automated connection design and the ability to export calculations on the fly project details can be produced at a fraction of the time. Plans are generated from the modeling input to produce clear and precise field use erection drawings.